Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f), Local Rule 26-1, and the Court's Order Setting Scheduling Conference, Plaintiff Erin Hiley ("Plaintiff") and Defendant Molina Healthcare, Inc. ("Defendant") (collectively, the "Parties") hereby submit their Joint Report.

I. NATURE AND BASIS OF CLAIMS AND DEFENSES

A. Plaintiff's Claims

Plaintiff was employed by Defendant Molina Health Care, Inc in the position of Vice President/Senior Assistant General Counsel. As a result of Defendant's wrongful conduct, Plaintiff is pursuing claims for Gender Discrimination in Violation of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(a); Violation of California Equal Pay Act; Sexual Harassment/Hostile Work Environment in Violation of Cal. Gov't Code §§ 12940(a) & (j); Retaliation in Violation of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(h); Failure to Prevent Discrimination, Retaliation and Harassment in Violation of Cal. Gov't Code § 12940(k); Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 1102.5(b); Constructive Discharge in Violation of Public Policy; Violation of Cal. Labor Code §§ 226 et seq.; Violation of Cal. Labor Code § 1198.5; Gender Discrimination in Violation of 42 U.S.C §§ 2000e-2(a)(1), et seq.; Sexual Harassment/Hostile Work Environment in Violation of 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e—2(a)(1), et seq.; Retaliation in Violation of 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e-3(a); Failure to Prevent Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation in Violation of 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e—2(a)(1), et seq.; Violation of Equal Pay Act 29 U.S.C. §§ 206(d)(1), et seq.

As a result of Defendant's wrongful conduct, Plaintiff was constructively discharged from employment. Defendant's wrongful conduct has caused Plaintiff significant harm and damage. Delays in resolving this matter could exacerbate and compound the harm and damages to Plaintiff.

Plaintiff's employment was constructively terminated on or about August 6, 2016. Plaintiff notified Defendant in August 2016 of her intent to pursue this matter. After properly exhausting her administrative remedies, Plaintiff filed this action on or 1 about January 20, 2017.

2 B. Defendant's Defenses

3 Defendant denies any allegations of wrongdoings or unlawful conduct in 4 Plaintiff's Complaint. Defendant denies that Plaintiff was subjected to discrimination, 5 harassment, or retaliation of any sort during her employment with Defendant, or that 6 Defendant otherwise failed to take reasonable and appropriate steps to prevent and/or 7 stop discrimination or harassment. In addition, Defendant denies that its pay and 8 promotional practices violated either the California or Federal Equal Pay Act.
9 Defendant's affirmative defenses are set forth in its Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint.

10 II. DISCOVERY PLAN

11 A. Initial Disclosures. Based on Defendant's request to extend the time 12 period under Rule 26(a) for initial disclosures, the Parties have agreed that initial 13 disclosures under Rule 26(a) will be due on April 25, 2017. With the exception of the 14 timing of disclosures, the Parties agree that there shall be no other changes made in 15 the form or requirement for disclosures under Rule 26(a).

16 B. Subjects on Discovery, Completion of Discovery, and Phasing or 17 Limitations to Discovery.

18 1. Plaintiff's Position

19 The Plaintiff anticipates conducting written discovery and depositions on the 20 following topics: Plaintiff's Affirmative Claims and Damages, as identified in Section 21 I. A, above, and Plaintiff's Complaint, and Defendant's defenses, as identified in 22 Section I. B, and Defendant's Answer.

23 Plaintiff anticipates completion of discovery by October 6, 2017. Plaintiff 24 notified Defendant of her claims in August 2016 and filed this matter in January 2017.
25 Accordingly, Plaintiff believes that a discovery cutoff of October 6, 2017 provides the 26 parties the reasonably necessary time to conduct discovery and exchange information.
27 This provides 14 months from Plaintiff's written notice of claims to complete 28 discovery.

1 Plaintiff's position regarding depositions: Plaintiff was employed by Defendant 2 as Vice President/Senior Assistant General Counsel. As such, Plaintiff regularly and 3 routinely communicated, counseled and conferred directly with Defendant's 4 management team, including the CEO, CFO, general counsel, Human Resources, and 5 others. Plaintiff further communicated directly with Defendant's management team 6 regarding her job duties, job performance, job issues and concerns and issues directly 7 relevant to this litigation. Accordingly, based on the information currently available, 8 Plaintiff intends to depose the following individuals: Jeff Barlow, Bob Gordon, John 9 Molina, Jim Novello, Mario Molina, Ron Kurtz, Charlotte Parker and a Rule 30(b)(6) 10 corporate representative. This number of anticipated depositions is being pursued in 11 the utmost good faith by Plaintiff, will cover relevant topics with appropriate 12 corporate witnesses, and is well within the presumptive limit of the FRCP. Plaintiff 13 also intends to depose any percipient witnesses who Defendant identifies. Plaintiff 14 reserves the right to supplement, amend, or alter this plan based on information 15 obtained in the course of discovery and litigation in this matter.

16 While this matter was pending in California Superior Court, Plaintiff properly 17 and timely served deposition notices and requests for documents on Defendant 18 pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure to efficiently and expeditiously 19 move the matter forward. Defendant made no efforts to pursue any discovery or 20 depositions. Defendant never communicated with Plaintiff about the discovery and 21 deposition notices served by Plaintiff until sending an e-mail after removal of this 22 action indicating that the discovery was now moot.

23 The Parties currently disagree as to the number, length and timing of 24 depositions, including whether Plaintiff's deposition should take place first. Plaintiff 25 intends to meet and confer in good faith regarding these disagreements, and only to 26 seek court intervention if necessary. Defendant has indicated a desire to seek a mental 27 health examination of Plaintiff, which Plaintiff may oppose.

28 Plaintiff reserves all rights and privileges to object to the taking of depositions of any of the individuals identified by the other party. She also reserves the right to 1 supplement, amend, or alter this plan based on information obtained in the course of 2 discovery and litigation in this matter.

3 2. Defendant's Position

4 The Defendant anticipates conducting discovery on the following topics:
5 Plaintiff's separation of employment with Defendant, Plaintiff's employment 6 performance, alleged retaliation, harassment, and discrimination purportedly suffered 7 by Plaintiff during her employment with Defendant, Plaintiff's promotions, wages, 8 and other terms and conditions of employment, Plaintiff's subsequent employments 9 and Plaintiff's efforts to mitigate any damages she claims resulted from her 10 employment or separation of employment with Defendant, Plaintiff's employment 11 qualifications, Plaintiff's emotional and/or physical distress claimed as a result of her 12 employment or the separation of her employment with Defendant, Defendant's 13 payment of wages and offer of promotional opportunities to male and female internal 14 counsel. Defendant anticipates completion of discovery by November 30, 2017.

15 At present, Defendant anticipates taking Plaintiff's deposition, and the 16 deposition of any percipient witnesses who Plaintiff asserts was a witness to the 17 purportedly unlawful conduct alleged in her Complaint. Defendant also believes that 18 Plaintiff's deposition should take place first given that Plaintiff is the individual 19 presenting allegations of unlawful conduct against Defendant, and thus is the person 20 with the most first-hand knowledge of such allegations and who she contends are 21 witnesses to the allegations. While Defendant has not yet noticed any depositions, it 22 has refrained from doing so in light of its removal, the stay on discovery pending the 23 Parties' Rule 26(f) conference, and Defendant's desire to meet and confer with 24 Plaintiff concerning depositions before unilaterally noticing a deposition as Plaintiff 25 did before Defendant's Answer was even due for filing.

26 In addition, Plaintiff has indicated an intent to depose virtually Defendant's 27 entire management team including the CEO, CFO, General Counsel and others, and 28 indeed served such notices of depositions before Defendant's Answer was even due to be filed or had been filed. Defendant will be disputing Plaintiff's right to do so. That

1 Plaintiff may or may not have communicated with, counseled, and conferred with 2 Defendant's management team, including the CEO, CFO, General Counsel, Human 3 Resources, and others and purportedly communicated her concerns to them are of no 4 moment at present to whether Plaintiff should be entitled, as a matter of right, to 5 depose all of the individuals that she has identified above. Rather, while Plaintiff may 6 have a right to depose the purported individuals who engaged in the allegedly 7 unlawful harassment and retaliation against her, and perhaps her direct supervisor, 8 Plaintiff should be required to provide sworn testimony first concerning her reasons 9 for believing that other high level executives have any potentially relevant information 10 concerning her claims before obtaining the depositions of such witnesses.

11 As noted above, it is Defendant's position that discovery will be completed by 12 November 30, 2017, and thus the discovery cut-off in this case should be set for 13 November 30, 2017. The Parties have already indicated that they anticipate 14 depositions of percipient witnesses, Defendant, and Plaintiff and exchange of written 15 discovery. As set forth in Section II.B.1. above, Plaintiff has expressed an intent to 16 depose numerous high-level executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, of 17 Defendant. The Parties already disagree as to whether Plaintiff should be entitled to 18 take such depositions, the timing of such depositions, and the length of such 19 depositions. By the time such disagreements are resolved and the depositions take 20 place in the case, it will likely be summer, and percipient witness schedules – 21 including pre-planned personal and business travel – may make it difficult to schedule 22 such depositions to be completed during the summer. Moreover, the fact that the 23 alleged individual who Plaintiff claims to have harassed her (Jim Novello) is no 24 longer currently employed means that additional subpoena and motion practice may 25 be necessary to secure that witness's attendance at deposition. Plaintiff has also not 26 provided a date that she may be available for her deposition. Further, because it is 27 anticipated that Plaintiff will allege emotional distress claims beyond garden variety 28 claims, Defendant intends to seek a mental health examination of Plaintiff. Plaintiff has already indicated she may oppose. Accordingly, Defendant believes that a

1 discovery cut-off of November 30, 2017 is appropriate and reasonable to permit the 2 Parties time to meet and confer over discovery disputes, schedule depositions, seek 3 Court intervention only if necessary, and complete written discovery.

4 Defendant reserves all rights and privileges to object to the taking of 5 depositions of any of the individuals identified by the other party. It also reserves the 6 right to supplement, amend, or alter this plan based on information obtained in the 7 course of discovery and litigation in this matter.

8 C. ESI. There is no known issue with respect to electronic discovery at this 9 time.

10 D. Privilege Issues. In light of Plaintiff's former role as a Senior Assistant 11 General Counsel for Defendant, and the fact that many of the individuals named by 12 Plaintiff in her Complaint as witnesses were or are attorneys for Defendant, Defendant 13 anticipates that discovery could lead to issues concerning production of attorney client 14 privileged information or work product materials. While the Parties will meet and 15 confer concerning the production of such documents, the Parties have agreed to 16 submit a Joint Stipulated Protective Order with the Court for the Court's approval.

17 E. Limitations on Discovery. The parties currently disagree as to the 18 number, length, and timing of depositions, but otherwise agree that no changes should 19 be made with respect to the applicability of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure's 20 discovery procedures. The Parties will meet and confer in good faith regarding these 21 disagreements, and only seek court intervention if necessary.

22 F. Other Orders. The Parties are not aware of any other orders that need to 23 be made at this time.

24 III. MANUAL FOR COMPLEX LITIGATION

25 The Parties agree that the Manual for Complex Litigation should not be used for 26 this case.

27 IV. MOTIONS

28 A. Plaintiff's Position

Based on Defendant's failure and refusal to provide files, records, and

1 documents formally and properly demanded by Plaintiff pre-litigation pursuant to the 2 California Labor Code, and Defendant's expressed position on limitations of 3 discovery and depositions, Plaintiff anticipates one or more discovery motions if the 4 issues cannot be resolved informally through good faith efforts to meet and confer.
5 Plaintiff proposes that all dispositive motions shall be filed by November 17, 2017.

6 B. Defendant's Position

7 Defendant anticipates filing a Motion for Summary Judgment and/or Summary 8 Adjudication. Defendant may file one or more discovery motions should its attempt 9 to meet and confer in good faith with Plaintiff prove unsuccessful. Defendant 10 proposes that all dispositive motions shall be filed by January 31, 2018.

11 Defendant also denies that it has in any way failed to provide files, records, and 12 documents to which it is obligated to under California law. Indeed, Defendant has 13 already produced any document that Plaintiff is otherwise entitled to demand under 14 the Labor Code.

15 V. EXPERT DISCOVERY

16 The Parties agree to follow the timelines set forth in Federal Rule 26(a)(2)(D).

17 VI. SETTLEMENT/ADR

18 The Parties have agreed to a settlement conference with a United States 19 Magistrate Judge.

20 VII. TRIAL ESTIMATE

21 The Parties agree that trial should take approximately 15 court days.

22 Plaintiff believes that trial in this matter should take place in April of 2018.
23 Plaintiff believes that this provides the parties sufficient time to conduct discovery, 24 resolve disputes, and litigate this matter efficiently. An April 2018 trial date provides 25 20 months from notice of claims by Plaintiff to Defendant, and 15 months from filing 26 of suit by Plaintiff. Plaintiff notified Defendant in August 2016 of her claims and her 27 intent to pursue this matter, and filed this action in January 2017. Plaintiff was 28 constructively discharged in August 2016. Defendant's wrongful conduct has caused

1 significant ongoing harm and damage to Plaintiff, and any delays in trial resolving this 2 matter could exacerbate and compound the harm to Plaintiff. Defendant's requested 3 trial date of August 2018 is 2 years from Plaintiff's discharge and 19 months from 4 filing of suit.

5 Defendant believes that trial on this matter should take place in August of 2018.
6 This would provide the parties with sufficient time to conduct discovery, attempt to 7 resolve potential disputes, and submit their dispositive motions before the Court. As 8 mentioned above, Plaintiff has already sought the depositions of at least 6 high level 9 executives, among others, who have difficult and complicated schedules. The Parties 10 are also already in disagreement as to the taking of such depositions, and are even in 11 dispute over whether Plaintiff's deposition should occur first. As such, Defendant's 12 proposed schedule, including the trial date, is an attempt to provide the Court with a 13 realistic trial date request so as to obviate the need to request a further continuance 14 later.

14 VIII. TRIAL COUNSEL

15 Both Parties will be represented at trial by the attorneys listed in the caption 16 above.

17 IX. ADDITIONAL PARTIES

18 The Parties do not currently anticipate adding any other parties.

19 X. SCHEDULE OF PRETRIAL AND TRIAL DATES

20 Pursuant to the Court's Order Setting Scheduling Conference, the Parties have 21 attached hereto as Exhibit A the Schedule of Pretrial and Trial Dates reflecting the 22 Parties' respective proposed dates.
